Cremation fees

Cremation fees can differ between crematoriums and fees depend on what time of the day the funeral service is booked and also whether the deceased was a resident of the borough. A separate price list shows the crematorium's list of charges.

Burial fees

Burial fees can differ between cemeteries and depend on the depth the grave is to be opened to. Fees can also depend on whether the deceased was a resident of the borough. A separate price list shows the cemetery's list of charges.

Funeral Packages - Charles Stephens Funeral Directors

The Direct Funeral (Unattended funeral)

£1,010 plus disbursements

An unattended funeral with no ceremony. The deceased will be transferred to our funeral home during office hours (additional £100 to be paid if outside these hours). No visiting is permitted and we will provide a simple coffin. The hearse will travel direct to the local crematorium. You may be present at the crematorium to pay your respects prior to the coffin being carried in to chapel. We will collect the ashes from the crematorium if required at no additional charge. The full cost of the funeral must be paid before the funeral date.

The Simple Funeral

£1,485 plus disbursements

The funeral will usually take place at a time to suit the Funeral Director's working practice, and is usually a 9.00 am or 9.30 am service. The hearse will travel directly to the crematorium to meet mourners. This specification specifically excludes embalming, viewing of the deceased and the provision of a limousine. Additions cannot be made to the Simple Funeral.
